New Curator-in-Residence and Exhibition at Gallery 201

Arts District Liberty Station is excited to announce our newly selected David G. Fleet Curator-in-Residence, Francisco Eme. Through this program, Francisco and his team at The FRONT Arte y Cultura, will be completing an 18-month residency, curating exhibitions at Arts District Liberty Station. They will be working with Emerging Artists in Residence for Visual Arts, and collaborating with the Arts District Liberty Station team to provide curated community programming. Francisco and team will be presenting Fragmented Stories, an exhibition exploring themes of belonging, border identity, multicultural experience, and the realities of living and creating in the San Diego-Tijuana region amid social and political uncertainty, through the works of our Emerging Artist Residency alumni, Eden DeLaVera and Marcela Alarcón López. Join us for the Opening Reception at Gallery 201 on Thursday, March 12th from 4 to 7pm.
